

Knox County and Bath Salts... what's happening and what can we do?

COMMUNITY TRAINING

Where: Rockland City Council Chambers

When: Monday, October 24, 2011

4:00—5:30 PM (including Q&A)

The latest drug craze, bath salts and synthetic cannabis, has hit Knox County. What are these synthetic drugs? How can you tell if someone is under the influence and what is the best way to safely approach and/or treat them? Join Maine Drug Recognition Expert Sgt. Don Finnegan of the Rockland Police Department as he presents the most current information and answers your questions.

This training is designed for:

- Medical professionals
- Mental health clinicians
- School personnel
- EMS/First responders
- Local law enforcement
- Clergy
- & Probation officers

ATTENDANCE IS FREE OF CHARGE

FOR MORE INFORMATION CALL:

RDNA 594-4522 or Knox County Community Health Coalition—236-6313, ex 1

SPONSORED BY:

